

The WomanSafeHealth Pledge

I pledge to you, whom I serve, from this day forward, to...

...welcome you, listen to you, believe you, protect your privacy, be accountable to you and to respect “no.”

WomanSafeHealth Guiding Principles

...confidentially and sensitively screen you for any childhood and adult herstory of neglect and/or physical and sexual abuse, including in medical, dental and therapy settings.

Violence Screening

...obtain your permission before touching you in any way including all examinations, procedures, tests, and treatments as well as clearly explaining all risks and benefits, and honestly answering your questions to the best of my ability.

Informed Consent

...respect your requests for support from whomever you choose during all health care encounters.

Woman Advocacy

...expose and oppose all ways SQHC and I oppress you and all women. I will actively use my power and influence to work toward equitable health care interactions, protocols, policies and institutional behaviors.
